General Terms & Conditions and Commercial Terms attached with the Order Form

1. General provisions

[Customer] (hereafter referred to as "the Customer") acknowledges that the sales order (hereafter referred to as the "Order Form") becomes valid after the Customer signs all of its pages and returns it by email, fax or mail within 15 days from the issuing date. ARH guarantees the agreed delivery period if the Customer confirms the order on the form within 15 days from issuance.

Unless otherwise stipulated on the Order Form, ARH shall deliver the ordered products only after the prescribed sum (indicated on the Order Form) is credited on ARH's bank account in full and without any deduction or hold.

Unless otherwise stipulated on the Order Form, prices indicated on the Order Form do not include the shipping/delivery costs and do not contain the Customer's payment transaction fees charged by financial institutions, which shall be covered by the Customer. The final prices are calculated at EXW HU-2071 Perbál, Hungary parity according to Incoterms® 2010, unless otherwise stipulated on the Order Form.

ARH retains the ownership and every other title related to the delivered goods until ARH has received the full amount indicated on the order.

2. Technical Support

ARH provides free technical support via the Internet based ARH Technical Support System (ATSS). Support hours: on (Hungarian) working days, from 9.00 am to 17.30 pm (CET)

ARH attempts to provide its best support, provided, that:

- ARH reserves the right to decide the level of required support, and
- ARH explicitly disclaims any direct or indirect claims against this support.

3. Hardware warranty conditions

All hardware components are covered with a 12-months warranty for repair or replacement, except Passport readers and Fingerprint Scanner products that are covered with a 24-months warranty, unless other conditions are stipulated on the Order Form. Physical damage that may occur on the Passport Readers' glass plate is not covered by warranty. Software products are sold "as-is" but covered by 12 months of technical support. If the Customer purchases extended software update beyond 12 months, then the support also remains available during that period.

Hardware warranty repair/replacements can only be obtained at ARH's registered premises; therefore all hardware products subject to warranty claims should be returned to ARH. Repair/replacement during the warranty period shall be covered on "carry-in" basis; however the warranty does not cover costs of shipping from the Customer to ARH premises. The warranty becomes void if the defect is deemed to originate from tampering, accident, abuse or misuse.

Prior to sending the defective product to ARH's registered premises for repair/replacement, the Customer shall provide ARH with the following details:

- defective product's name,
- date of purchase,
- serial number of the defective product(s).

Based on the above information, ARH will provide the Customer with a Returned Merchandise Authorization Form (RMA), and in case of a non-EU customer, a pro forma invoice as well. These documents shall accompany the returned products.

IMPORTANT: without having a duly completed and accepted RMA form, ARH refuses to accept any product returned for repair/replacement.

To simplify the customs and delivery process, the Customer is strongly advised to return the product(s) to ARH's registered premises using the same courier company as ARH did upon delivery.

ARH is not liable for any delays and extra costs that may occur due to the Customer negligence to fulfill the above mentioned obligations, and the Customer shall absorb all incidental expenses arising from such occurrence. All related costs must be paid prior to receiving the product for repair/replacement.

4. Provisions related to value added tax (VAT) and tax identification number (TIN)

By signing this Order Form, the Customer declares that the calculated VAT/their TIN indicated on the Order Form is correct and valid. If the VAT/TIN is not
